JOHN E. FETZER Chairman of the Board

John E. Fetzer is a man of quiet design.

A man of dignity and business genius, Fetzer is as revered for his behind-the-scenes baseball leadership and innovation as Hall of Famers are celebrated for their on-field heroics.

A self-made man who parlayed radio pioneering into a fortune, Fetzer never lost his zeal for his youthful passion of baseball. He devoted his insightful genius to his No. 1 love-the Detroit Tigers.

Fetzer serves as Chairman of the Tigers' four-man Board of Directors, along with Owner and Vice-Chairman Tom Monaghan President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Campbell and Doug

Dawson, who serves as corporate secretary and also is a vice-president at Domino's Pizza,

Throughout his successful career, Fetzer-by design-has remained behind-the-scenes while his accomplishments stand proudly to be enjoyed by Tiger fans and baseball followers throughout the nation.

Under Fetzer's long ownership of the Tigers, Detroit fans have been treated to competitive and enjoyable baseball. And it's been handled with honor and integrity—qualities which have made the Tigers one of the most respected organizations in all of professional sports.

It was Fetzer's decision alone to keep the Tigers in Detroit and part of the workingman's community. It was Fetzer's broadcasting genius that was instrumental in pushing baseball's TV income to levels once thought beyond reach.

But his No. 1 love always has remained the Detroit Tigers.

From Nov, 1961 until Oct, 1983, Fetzer served as sole owner of the Tigers. He hand-picked Monaghan to succeed him as sole owner after determining that Monaghan possessed the impeccable qualities of love and devotion to the Tigers necessary to lead this outstanding franchise.

Fetzer's unbending devotion to the Tigers is best summed up by this personal observation: "I've not served as owner of this great franchise—only as its guardian."

A key figure in the three-group syndicate which purchased the Tigers from the W.O. Briggs, Sr. estate in 1956, Fetzer gained two-third control in 1960 and 15 months later bought the remaining shares to give the Tigers their first one-man ownership since Briggs' death in 1952.

A firm believer in the philosophy of a one-man ownership, Fetzer waited for his precise successor before passing on the guardianship.

Born at Decatur, IN, March 25, 1901, Fetzer attended high school at West Lafayette, IN, and it was there he became interested in railroad telegraphy, which led to his interest in radio and eventually television.

He attended Purdue University in 1921, dropped out to take radio engineering on a commercial basis, but returned to college to get a degree in 1927 at Andrews University near Benton Harbor. Fetzer also graduated from the National Radio Institute in Washington, did graduate work at the University of Michigan and extension work at the University of Wisconsin. He received an honorary LL.D. degree from Western Michigan University and from Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Fetzer is the recipient of numerous awards for his contributions to baseball and the broadcasting industries. Among the most prestigious awards were the Golden Mike Award, in January, 1981 and the August A. Busch, Jr. Award for meritorious service to baseball in December, 1981.

He has been a member of baseball's Executive Council, highest level policy-making unit, on two occasions, 1961-65 and 1974-81.

Among Fetzer's holdings over the years have been a number of radio and television stations throughout the United States. His home remains in Kalamazoo.

THOMAS S. MONAGHAN Vice-Chairman & Owner

Thomas S. Monaghan is a beautiful blend of complex business genius and simple love of baseball innocence. The combination makes the youthful Monaghan one of the most respected and loved individuals in both the worlds of international business and baseball.

That's quite an accomplishment for a man who forged his own destiny and enters the 1987 baseball season at a youthful 51-years of age.

Monaghan is the founder, chairman of the board and president of Domino's Pizza, Inc. Based in Ann Arbor, this privately held company is the world's largest pizza delivery company and second largest pizza chain in the

And on Oct 10, 1983, Monaghan realized a lifelong dream when it was announced he had purchased the Detroit Tigers as sole owner. Monaghan's love of baseball was born during his boyhood which was spent in various parts of the state of Michigan. But his passion became the Detroit Tigers. "I never wanted to own the Yankees or Dodgers or any other major league club," Monaghan said, "I wanted the Tigers,"

And as much as Monaghan wanted the Tigers, the franchise couldn't have gotten a more loving and concerned guardian.

MONAGHAN (Continued)

In Monaghan's first year as owner, the Tigers won the 1984 World Series. In 1987, they rallied to capture the East Division title.

Monaghan was born at Ann Arbor, MI, in 1937. He was raised in an orphanage, foster homes and attended Catholic schools in Traverse City. He entered a Grand Rapids seminary before graduating from Ann Arbor High School in 1955. As a teenager, he worked as a laborer on several Northern Michigan farms.

Monaghan attended Ferris State College before enlisting in the Marine Corps in 1956. Receiving his honorable discharge in 1959, he returned to Ann Arbor, enrolled at the University of Michigan, and worked three part-time jobs to support himself.

Monaghan's affiliation with the pizza business began in 1960, when he and his brother, James, borrowed $500 and opened a small pizza store, Dominick's Pizza, in Ypsilanti. Eight months later, he bought out his brother's share and formed another partnership. He then began operating stores in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Mount Pleasant.

While making his first delivery at the Mount Pleasant store, Monaghan met his future wife, Marjorie. They married in 1962, and now reside in Ann Arbor. They have four daughters.

In 1965, after dissolving his partnership, Monaghan named his new business Domino's Pizza, Inc. By 1973, he had more than 60 Domino's Pizza stores in operation. Now there are about 4,000.

Monaghan pioneered several innovations, which have set the standard for the pizza industry, including a stiff corrugated box and the hot box oven which keeps pizza warm while en route to the customer.

Monaghan lends his support to a variety of philanthropic interests. He devotes both time and financial support to the Catherine MacAuley Health Center, Ann Arbor, MI; Individualized Home Nursing, Inc., Ann Arbor; The University of Michigan School of Architecture; and the University of Michigan Athletic Department. He also provides aid to a community and orphanage in Honduras.

He is a member of the University of Michigan Presidents Club, the Ann Arbor Presidents' Association, and the Young Presidents' Organization. He is a member of both the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Chambers of Commerce as well as a member of the MacAuley Development Council.

Monaghan serves on the board of directors for several institutions: Cleary College, Ypsilanti, MI; Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, MI; Detroit Renaissance; University of Steubenville, Steubenville, OH; and the Ann Arbor Summer Festival.

Monaghan has been listed in Who's Who in Michigan and Who's Who in America. He is the recipient of the Harvard Business School of Detroit 1984 Entrepreneur of the Year Award, the 1985 Horatio Alger Award and the 1986 International Franchise Association Entrepreneur of the Year Award. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Cleary College, Ypsilanti, MI; Madonna College, Detroit; Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti; and Florida Southern College, Lakeland, FL.

JAMES ARTHUR CAMPBELL President & Chief Executive Officer

Jim Campbell has established himself as one of baseball's most respected executives during his 39-year career with the Detroit Tigers.

Since joining the organization in 1949, following graduation from Ohio State University, he has developed and demonstrated an insight into all aspects of the baseball industry. He has served on many committees and is currently serving on Major League Baseball's Executive Council.

Campbell assumed his present position of president and chief executive officer of the Tigers after serving 21 years as vice-president/general manager and executive vice-president/general manager. He now has the longest reign in the major leagues as general manager or president with one club.

Under his leadership, the Tigers have become one of the country's most respected professional sports franchises

Along with Chairman John E. Fetzer, Owner Tom Monaghan and Corporate Secretary Doug Dawson, Campbell serves on the Tigers' four-man board of directors and oversees the roles of the Tigers' five vice-presidents.

Campbell was first employed by the Tigers as business manager of the Thornasville, GA farm club. He progressed through the player development system with stops at Toledo, OH and Buffalo, NY, and was called to Detroit in October, 1952, to become business manager of the farm department and then as director of player procurement and development. Campbell advanced to vice-president of the Tigers in 1959 while still under 35 years of age. He was appointed general manager at the end of the 1962 season to become one of the youngest executives in the game at this lofty level.

Campbell assumed the presidency of the club in September, 1978, and retained the general manager's post until October, 1983, when he moved up to his present position.

Detroit's World Championships in 1968 and 1984 rank as the proudest accomplishments of his leadership. The Sporting News acknowledged his baseball acumen by naming Campbell "Baseball's Executive of the Year" for 1968.

During the years that Campbell has served as general manager and/or president-CEO, the Tigers also won the 1972 and 1987 American League East Division Championships and notched four additional second place finishes, with a total record of 2,166 wins and 1,928 losses. Also, during this same period the team drew 39,384,812 paid admissions for a yearly average of 1,575,392. This includes 23 seasons over 1 million fans and four seasons over 2 million, including the Tigers' record year of 1984 when they drew 2,704,794.

One of Campbell's early responsibilities in 1953 was construction and development of Tigertown, the spring training base in Lakeland, FL. He also was instrumental in developing the Tigers' modern dormitory, John Fetzer Hall, and the construction of Marchant Stadium. Lakeland now claims one of baseball's finest major and minor league spring training facilities.

Born at Huron, OH, on February 5, 1924, Campbell was a four-sport high school and amateur athlete in his home town. He played baseball for three years for Ohio State from where he graduated in 1949. Between high school and college, Campbell spent three and a half years (1943-46) in the Navy Air Corps.

Campbell was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in May, 1985 and the Ohio Baseball Hall of Fame in August, 1987.

DOUGLAS J. DAWSON Corporate Secretary

Doug Dawson was named to the Detroit Tigers Board of Directors in November, 1987. He joined Chairman John E. Fetzer, Owner and Vice-Chairman Tom Monaghan and Jim Campbell, Tiger President and Chief Executive Officer.

At the same time, Dawson was named Tiger corporate secretary. Dawson serves Domino's Pizza, Inc. as vice-president of administration and finance. He's held the position since August, 1985.

In his position, Dawson manages the financial, marketing and administrative functions of Domino's. These areas include insurance, legal concerns, budgeting and corporate store growth,

Dawson began with Domino's Pizza, Inc. in 1978 as treasurer. He was promoted to vice-president of finance in 1981.

Prior to joining Domino's Pizza, Dawson served for nine years as audit manager for Arthur Anderson & Co., Detroit. A certified public accountant, Dawson earned a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master's degree in marketing from Michigan State University.

A native of Grosse Pointe Woods, MI, Dawson and wife Susan reside in Ann Arbor with son Mark and daughter Kristin.

WILLIAM R. LAJOIE Vice President—General Manager

Bill Lajoie is a baseball man who has earned his place of excellence in the game's executive elite.

As vice-president—general manager, Lajole is responsible for all major league operations, reporting directly to Jim Campbell. Lajole offers the Tigers a distinguished and thorough baseball background and intricate knowledge of the game. He is considered one of today's most respected negotiators.

Lajoie was named general manager in Oct, 1983. He wasted no time justifying the club's confidence in him as he initiated several key moves that led to Detroit's World Championship in 1984. His crafty moves in 1987 led to an East Division title and one of the most dramatic comebacks in many years.

Lajoie's rise to his lofty position is accompanied with first-hand experience in all baseball operations. His thoroughness of execution is a reflection of his complete baseball background.

Born at Wyandotte, MI, on Sept 27, 1934, Lajoie starred in baseball at Detroit's Denby High and Western Michigan University where he made the 1955 All-America team as a centerfielder.

After signing a bonus contract with the Baltimore Orioles, Lajoie spent 10 years (1955-64) as a minor league standout. Lajoie batted over .300 in four minor league seasons, but a broken leg shattered what seemed like a certain major league career.

Blessed with a keen eye for talent and possessing an insight for the intricacies of the game, Lajoie turned to scouting for the Cincinnati Reds (1965-68).

Lajoie became a Tiger scout in November, 1968. În June, 1969, he managed the Tiger rookie club at Bristol, VA, în the Appalachian League.

Lajoie moved into the Tiger front office in 1970 as supervisor of Michigan scouts. After four years in that position, Lajoie became coordinator of scouting in 1974 and in 1975 assumed the position of director of player procurement.

In 1978, he was named vice-president/baseball, a position he held until 1983 when he was named general manager.

Under Lajoie, the Tigers developed one of the most productive farm systems in baseball. A former teacher in the Detroit Public School system, Lajoie is a member of Western Michigan University's Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Gloria, have two sons and a daughter.

WILLIAM E. HAASE Vice-President—Operations

Bill Haase is a reflection of Tiger philosophy—progress and promotion from within the organization.

Haase serves as vice-president—operations. In his position, he is responsible for business and stadium operations. He reports directly to Jim Campbell.

Haase was appointed to the position in Aug, 1978.

Under Haase's direction, the Tigers successfully have initiated several significant changes. The most notable are an $18 million interior and exterior renovation of Tiger Stadium and the conversion of the ticket office operations to a completely computerized system.

Haase joined the Tigers in July, 1975, as business manager, with an educational and business background in accounting. His ability to handle a wide range of assignments led to his speedy elevation to the club's vice-presidency.

Born Dec 26, 1943 at Highland Park, MI, Haase was a 1962 graduate of South Lake High School in St. Clair Shores. He received a degree in business administration, majoring in accounting, from Western Michigan University in 1971.

He spent more than three years in the U.S. Marine Corps before entering college, becoming a sergeant in Vietnam.

After his college graduation, he joined the firm of Copper Brass Sales, Inc., of Detroit, and was on assignment to that firm's office in Oakland, CA, when the Tigers appointed him to the business manager's post in 1975.

A long-time Tiger advocate, Haase is an all-around sports enthusiast who enjoys various activities in his spare time. A member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he also was a member of the Western Michigan Honorary Accounting Society and president of the Western Michigan Veterans Association while in college.

A resident of Sterling Heights, Haase and his wife, Sandy, have one son, John, who is a member of the U.S. Marine Corps.

JOSEPH A. McDONALD Vice-President—Player Procurement & Development

Joe McDonald brought a lifetime of baseball experience when he joined the Tigers as vice-president of player procurement and development on Aug 1, 1986.

As former general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and New York Mets, McDonald has encountered a wealth of baseball experiences that make him the right man to head Detroit's scouting and minor league operations. He reports directly to Jim Campbell.

McDonald has almost 30 years of professional baseball experience with the Mets, Cardinals, Philadelphia Phillies and now the McDonald joined the Tigers after serving as a special scout for the Phillies. Before that, he was with the Cardinals, joining the club in Oct, 1980 as executive assistant/baseball, handling the administration of the general manager's office under Whitey Herzog.

Tigers

McDonald then was named general manager when Herzog decided he should concentrate his talents to managing on the field.

McDonald went to the Cardinals after 19 years with the Mets, including five as vice-president and general manager (1975-79). He spent 1980 as vice-president-baseball operations

McDonald began with the Mets in 1962 as club statistician and a year later was moved into the minor league department. He advanced steadily in a variety of roles, notably director of scouting and administrative secretary. He played a large role in the implementation of the program dedicated to the development of pitching talent, the cornerstone on which the Mets gained distinction as the first expansion team in history to win the pennant and World Series in 1969.

Born on Staten Island, NY, July 5, 1929, McDonald earned an accounting degree from Fordham in 1951. He served two years in the Air Force (1952-54) and then moved into the business world, before joining the Mets.

McDonald resides with wife, Virginia. He has two sons and a daughter.

ALEXANDER C. CALLAM Vice-President—Finance & Secretary-Treasurer

The man with his finger on the financial pulse of the Tigers is Alex Callam, vice-president—finance and secretary-treasurer.

In his role, Callam handles a variety of financial affairs which include accounting, banking, taxes and insurance, among others. He assumed that position in August, 1978, following four years as secretary-treasurer—succeeding Harry M. Sisson in 1974 when Sisson retired after 43 years of service.

Previous to joining the Tiger official family as business manager in 1962, Callam acquired a basic knowledge of baseball operations while auditing the Tigers' accounts for an outside firm, starting in 1958.

His appointment to the Tiger staff came at a point when Sisson, then executive vicepresident, announced plans to gradually phase himself out of the club's operations.

Callam was born at Windsor, Ontario, Aug. 27, 1928. After graduation from Assumption University in Windsor with a bachelor of arts degree in 1949, he continued his education at the University of Michigan and received a master's degree in business administration in 1956.

University of Michigan and received a master's degree in business administration in 1956.

That year, he joined the firm of Ernst & Ernst and became a certified public accountant two years later, immediately taking over the Tiger audit as one of his principal duties.

In the United States Army from 1951 through 1953, Callam is an ardent golfer, an expert bridge player and an avid follower of all sports.

His professional affiliations include the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

JEFF ODENWALD Vice-President—Marketing, Radio-TV, Public Relations

Jeff Odenwald brings a career full of baseball experience to the Tigers in his new position of vice-president of marketing, communications and public relations.

Since graduating from Ohio State University in 1969, Odenwald has spent his life in professional baseball.

Odenwald, 41, served as general manager for Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Greenwood, SC in 1970-71.

From there he joined the Cincinnati Reds in promotion sales and group sales from 1972-76. Odenwald moved to the Seattle Mariners as business director, in charge of group sales and marketing from 1977 through 1982 when he left to join the Chicago Cubs.

Odenwald served as director of marketing, radio/TV and merchandising for the Cubs before joining the Tigers Nov. 23, 1987.

Born Sept. 4, 1946, Odenwald and wife, Karen, are the parents of 6-year-old son, Ryan.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

A renovation of Tiger Stadium was started in November, 1977 after the historic plant was sold to the City of Detroit for $1 and leased back to the Tigers for 30 years with a 30-year renewal option.

Installation of all modern plastic seats was completed before Opening Day, 1980. The $2 million electronic scoreboard, with message capabilities, is in its ninth season, as are the modern broadcast facilities. External renovation of Tiger Stadium was completed in 1983.

Two improvements, financed by the Tigers before the sale of the stadium, were 1977 installation of a $500,000 multi-vapor field lighting system and construction of a $600,000 pressbox to replace one destroyed by fire Feb 1, 1977.

Seating capacity (subject to final adjustments) is projected at 52,806 with 11,732 box seats, 23,606 reserved 6,269 general admission and 11,199 bleachers.

Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born with Detroit as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan 1, 1961.

GEORGE LEE ANDERSON

Manager

Nickname: Sparky. Born: Bridgewatar, SD 2-22-34 (54) 5-9 170 B-R T-R. (Infielder). Married: Carol Valle. Children: George Jr., Shirlee Trece, Albert William. Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA.

Sparky Anderson's list of achievements as manager of the Detroit Tigers grows more impressive each year. Already the dean in the American League, only Tommy Lasorda of Los Angeles has more continuous service among major league field leaders.

Sparky, second among all Detroit managers with 748 wins and 1348 games, is the only major league manager to win 700 games with 2 different teams.

Under Sparky's direction, the Tigers have finished above the .500 mark each year. But success is a Sparky Anderson trademark.

Sparky has an 18-year major league record of 1611-1186 (.576). His overall winning percentage is 8th highest of 20th century managers with at least 10 years experience. Sparky's cumulative victory total is 11th highest in the history of the game. Hired on June 12, 1979. Sparky was in uniform two games later. The Tigers matured with his guidance, rising from 5th place in 1980, his first full season at the helm, to just missing post-season action in 1981.

Sparky molded his team and saw the fruits of his labor take shape with a 2nd place finish in 1983. Then the Tigers astounded the baseball world with a season which may never be seen again. The 1984 Tigers exploded to a club-record 104 victories then swept Kansas City en route to the World Series. Once there, San Diego proved no match, falling in five games. Sparky was honored as American League Manager of the Year and took his place in baseball history. No other manager can boast 100-win seasons in each league; playoff sweeps in each league; a World Series title in each league.

One of Sparky's proudest seasons was 1987. Picked by many to finish 5th, the Tigers battled all year to take the East Division title. Again Sparky was named Manager of the Year

The Tigers knew what they were getting when Sparky joined the team. His reputation and accomplishments with Cincinnati were well documented. The Reds were one of baseball's most formidable teams in his command, 1970-1978. His record (863-586, .596) was the best in the National League during that time.

Sparky's Reds won five West Division titles, four pennants and a pair of World Series. Cincinnati became only the 3rd National League team and the first in 54 years to win back-to-back World Series in 1975-76.

He has been NL Manager of the Year twice (1972 and 1975) and perennially involved with the All-Star Game. Sparky has managed the NL four times and the AL once. He has been a coach three times Born February 22, 1934 at Bridgewater, SD, Sparky grew up in California. He played in the minor leagues for six seasons as an infielder In 1959 Sparky played for the Philadelphia Phillies, his only season in the major leagues. However, upon returning to the minors he honed his managerial abilities and was named to his first assignment in 1964 at Toronto.

His move to the major league level came in 1970. Following the 1969 season, spent as a coach for the San Diego Padres, Sparky was added to the staff of the California Angels but within 24 hours was given the manager's job at Cincinnati.

His initial season saw the Reds win 102 games and earn a berth in the World Series opposite the Baltimore Orioles. It was to be the first of many impressive seasons.

SPARKY'S TIGER TIES

Sparky Anderson's first game at Detroit didn't come in 1979 when he was named manager of the Tigers. It came almost 30 years earlier when he and Coach Billy Consolo were members of the 1951 Crenshaw Post of Los Angeles which played for a national championship in American Legion ball at Briggs Stadium.

Sparky also managed an All-Star Game, on the National League side, at Tiger Stadium in 1971. The American League won that game, 6-4.

Charlie Dressen is the man Sparky credits for having the greatest influence on him in becoming one of baseball's most successful managers. Dressen managed the Tigers 1963-1966.

Another member of the Tigers' front office, Vice-President and General Manager Bill Lajoie, was Sparky's roommate in the minor leagues when both were at Toronto of the International League.

SPARKY-NO. 11 IS NUMBER 1

Sparky Anderson is the dean of American League managers. He began his reign as Tiger field leader on June 14, 1979.

Second in tenure is California's Gene Mauch who joined the Angels in 1981. The only major league manager with a longer tenure than Anderson is Tommy Lasorda of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Lasorda assumed control of the Dodgers in 1977.

FIVE-100 GAME WINNERS

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season—and two of them failed to win pennants. Under Sparky Anderson, the 1984 Tigers set a club record of 104 regular season wins. The Tigers (104-58) swept three games in the Playoffs and four of five games in the World Series. Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2½ games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk. The 1934 Bengals (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane won a pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way by defeating St. Louis for the World Championship.

Traded to Detroit for Pitcher Dave LaPoint, July 9, 1986.

GW-RBI-Baylor; HR-Gaetti - 2 (2), Heath, Gibson

T-2:26; A-53,269

Down 4-1 after 5 innings, the Tigers battled back behind a Gibson homer, an RBI single by Heath, and 2 8th-inning sacrifice flies to take a 5-4 edge into the bottom of the 8th. The Twins exploded in their half, using 2 doubles, 2 singles, and 2 walks to score 4 times and hand Doyle Alexander his first loss as a Tiger.

GAME 2 at Minnesota Thursday, October 8

DETROIT 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 Minnesota

MORRIS (L) and Heath

BLYLEVEN (W), Berenguer (8-Sv) and Laudner

GW-RBI-Laudner; HR-Lemon, Hrbek, Whitaker

T-2:54; A-55,245

Jack Morris and Bert Blyleven faced off in a matchup of 2 of the AL's premier pitchers, who also were undefeated in career post-season play. The Tigers jumped in front with Chet Lemon's 2nd-inning 2-run homer, but saw the lead disappear in the Twins' half, as the Twins tallied 3 times after 2 were out. Tim Laudner's first-pitch 2-run double proved to be the game-winner, Minnesota was never headed, scoring 3 more in the middle innings and sending Morris to his first loss in the Metrodome after 8 straight wins.

GAME 3 at Detroit Saturday, October 10

Detroit broke open a scoreless game with 5 runs in the 3rd frame, knocking Twins' starter Les Straker from the contest. Intent on making the biggest comeback in ALCS history, Minnesota scrapped for a pair of runs in the 4th and 2 more in the 6th before taking the lead on Gary Gaetti's 2-run single in the 7th off Mike Henneman. Larry Herndon opened the Tiger 8th with a single off Jeff Reardon. One out later, Pat Sheridan clubbed the game-winning homer deep into the upper deck in rightfield, scoring Jack Morris, a pinch-runner, ahead of him.

GAME 4 at Detroit Sunday, October 11

T-3:24; A-51,939

Looking to tie the series at 2 games apiece, the Tigers opened what would be a tense game by scoring an unearned run in the first. Kirby Puckett and Greg Gagne countered for the Twins, knocking solo homers in the 3rd and 4th innings, pushing Minnesota back into a lead that they would not relinquish. The Tigers had opportunities to win, but squandered a 6th-inning threat when Darrell Evans was picked off third base while Dave Bergman stood on second with one out and the score 4-3.

GAME 5 at Detroit Monday, October 12

4 9 Minnesota 0 3 DETROIT 0 0 0

BLYLEVEN (W), Schatzeder (7), Berenguer (8), Reardon (8-Sv) and Laudner ALEXANDER (L), King (2), Henneman (7), Robinson (9) and Nokes

T-3:14; A-47,448

Minnesota won its first AL pennant since 1965, using late-inning bats to pound Detroit 9-5. The Twins charged out to an early 4-0 lead, tallying 4 times in the 2nd off starter and loser Doyle Alexander. The Tigers pulled within a run in the 4th, as Alan Trammell produced a run-scoring single and Matt Nokes followed with his first homer of the series. Eric King held the Twins down for 5 innings, allowing just 3 hits and one run, but his exit brought a barrage of Minnesota offense that salted away the American League championship.

^{*} Opening Day

Of the Tigers' 38 inside-the-park home runs, 22 have been hit at home. Lou Whitaker holds the team record with 3 inside-the-park home runs in his career. Only Sam Crawford ever had 2 in the same season. He hit the very first 2, in 1912.

CLEARING THE ROOF

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, 21 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Nineteen have gone over the rightfield roof and two over the more-distant leftfield roof.

The first over-the-roof homer was delivered by Ted Williams during his rookie season in the American League. The most recent clout was by Kirk Gibson, Sept. 10, 1986.

The 1969 roof-clearing homer credited to Jim Northrup bounced back on the field—but only after clearing the top of the roof before striking an obstruction on the other side.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934—a blow which cleared the rightfield wall and rolled several hundred feet down a street leading to the stadium. Even longer was a Ruthian blast of June 8, 1926 which also cleared the wall and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street. The ball was retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning it to the Bambino.

Chicago) to launch night play in the American League that year.

The Tigers' first night game under the lights at Tiger Stadium was June 15, 1948, when they again defeated the A's, 4-1. TIGER ALL-STAR HISTORY (cont.) GAMES AT DETROIT

July 8, 1941—AL 7, NL 5

GAME NO. 9 — Still regarded as the best finish in All-Star Game history, the American League defeated the National League 7-5 with a 4-run rally in the 9th inning. The difference in the game was Ted Williams' 2-out home run with Joe Gordon and Joe DiMaggio on base. Overlooked because of Williams' heroics was Pittsburgh's Arky Vaughan. All he did was become the first player to hit two home runs in an All-Star Game, had a single and drove in four runs.

GAME NO. 18— The All-Star Game was supposed to have been played in Philadelphia, hosted by the Phillies, but in honor of the City of Detroit's 250th anniversary, the game was shifted to Briggs Stadium. The National League, however, did most of the celebrating with an 8-3 victory

Stan Musial of St. Louis and Bob Elliott of Milwaukee homered for the NL in the 4th inning to snap a 1-1 tie. The AL cut the lead to 4-3 on home runs by Tigers Vic Wertz and George Kell

TIGER ALL-STAR HISTORY (cont.) GAMES AT DETROIT

July 13, 1971—AL 6, NL 4

GAME NO. 42—The air was full of electricity as the American League ended an 8-game losing streak in the Mid-Summer Classic, 6-4. An All-Star Game record-tying six home runs were belied, three by each team.

Hall-of-Fame caliber players Johnny Bench, Hank Aaron and Roberto Clemente for the Nationals and Reggie Jackson, Frank Robinson and Harmon Killebrew for the Americans put the ball into the stands-and in the case of Jackson, almost out of the park.

Jackson's home run is another highlight of the All-Star Game which will indelibly mark the 1971 game among the best in the history of the inter-league contest.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Since 1900, major league batters have hit single-double-triple-homer in a game 171 times-87 in the American League and 84 in the National League.

Seven Tigers have hit for the cycle (see table below). The last was Hoot Evers, Sept. 7, 1950 in a 10-inning tie with Cleveland at Briggs Stadium. Fans at Detroit have seen 10 players hit for the cycle, five Tigers and five opponents (see table below).

Four players hit for the cycle in 1987, all from the National League. Chicago's Andre Dawson did it vs. San Francisco on Apr. 29. The Giants' Candy Maldonado followed at St. Louis on May 5, then Expo Tim Raines vs. Pittsburgh on Aug. 16, and finally Atlanta's Albert Hall vs. Houston on Sept. 23.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record for most times hitting for the cycle with the third of his career at Navin Field July 26, 1928. The Cubs' Babe Herman tied the record in 1933.

TIGER POST-SEASON HISTORY WORLD SERIES

1907—Chicago 4 games, Detroit 0 (Plus 12-inn. tie)
Manager Frank Chance's National League champions by 17½-game margin were easy winners over Hughie Jennings' tired Tigers, who nosed out Philadelphia by six points in bitter finishing drive. Tiger morale suffered when Catcher Charlie Schmidt failed to hold 9th-inning third strike which would have ended first game on winning note. Darkness brought 3-3 tie in 12 innings and Cubs, who stole 18 bases during series, went on to well-deserved triumph.

History repeated as Frank Chance's hard-hitting Cubs, one-game National League winners over New York, easily handled Hughie Jennings' Tigers, last-day victors over Chicago in American League. Tigers scored 15 runs in first three games, then were shut out twice. George Mullin won Detroit's only victory in third game with help of four hits by Ty Cobb.

First World Series going limit was taken by Fred Clarke's Pirates when Babe Adams, unheralded rookie, surprisingly won three decisions over Hughie Jennings' battling Tigers as two teams alternated in winning. Honus Wagner batted .333 for Pirates in duel with Ty Cobb, who hit .231 in his last World Series. Bill Abstein, Pirate first baseman, fanned 10 times and was fired as soon as series ended.

Tigers qualified with first American League pennant in 25 years under Mickey Cochrane's aggressive management but were nosed out by Frank Frisch's Cardinals in bitter series marked by final-game row in which Commissioner Landis removed Joe Medwick from game when Detroit fans showered field with garbage following Medwick's collision with Mary Owen, Tiger third baseman. The Tigers completed their goal, one which began following the 1983 season, grew in Spring Training, matured with a 35-5 start and reached fruition in mid-October. Larry Herndon homered in Game 1 to lift the Tigers to a 3-2 victory behind the determined Jack Morris. The Padres rebounded from an early 3-0 deficit to win 5-3 in the next game on the strength of a 3-run home run by Kurt Bevacqua. Marty Castillo's 2-run homer run in the 2nd inning propelled the Tigers to a 5-2 win in the third game. Alan Trammell hit a pair of home runs to back Morris' 2nd complete game, a 4-2 victory pushing the Tigers to the brink of a championship. HOW THEY BECAME TIGERS

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit haseball club in 1895

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896, although George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the move which resulted in the nickname when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

Later evidence makes it appear that an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press actually originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroits,

" sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western league under the ownership of G.A. Van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of under the ownership of G.A. van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purported to be the cream of California baseball players"—which may account for the name. Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read: "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed: "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called them the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, the Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895 careful search of the files disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had used "Tigers."

Thus it seems that the Detroit Free Press must get credit originating the Tiger nickname in 1895 -unless someone has other new evidence to the contrary.

TIGERS ON THE AIR

Consistency and quality are the hallmarks which characterize Tiger baseball on radio and television

Radio Station WJR (760) has served as flagship since 1964 and currently heads a network round the state of Michigan. And when the Tigers are on the radio it stands to reason that Ernie Harwell and Paul Carey are on hand to describe all the action home and away

Harwell came to Detroit for the 1960 season. Carey became his broadcast partner in 1973. The pair currently enjoys the status of being the longest unaltered radio team in the American League, with 1988 their 16th consecutive season together.

Harwell's broadcast background began in 1940 and he has been on the major league scene since 1948, describing the action for the Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants and Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Tigers in 1960. In 1981, Harwell received his highest broadcasting honor when he was given the Ford Frick Award which hangs proudly in Cooperstown.

Carey has won numerous broadcasting awards during his professional career that goes back to 1949. He is best known for his resonant tone and friendly manner

-George Kell, who was elected in The Tiger TV team boasts a pair of Hall of Fame players-1983, and Al Kaline who was elected in 1980. The two have distinctive styles and keen insights into the game which give their audience that little extra edge.

Kell was an American League infield star 14 years with the Tigers and four other teams and was the 1949 batting champion. He broke into broadcasting with a pre-game show on the Tiger network in 1958, then moved into the booth in 1959 doing play-by-play every year since, except 1964.

Kaline, all-time Tiger great, began his broadcasting career in 1976 doing a limited number of games in the second year of his retirement. He became a full-time telecaster in 1970. The Tiger flagship TV station is WDIV, (Channel 4) which also feeds an outstate network. WDIV has been the Tiger flagship since 1975 although when known as WWDT-TV it telecast the first Tiger game in 1947.

In addition, the Tigers televise about 80 games to almost 125 cable systems in counties throughout Michigan, Ohio and Indiana through Pro Am Sports System (PASS).

SPRING TRAINING FACTS SINCE 1966

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first at Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

Adjacent of the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' Adjacent of the 12-act eract of which the statum is studied is right own, the right minor-league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof domittory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 7,027, including 650 box seats. The Tigers' record at Marchant Stadium is 178-131-1 and 1,182,247 fans have paid to see Grapefruit League games since it opened.

ESTABLISHING ROOTS

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland continuously since 1946, one of just three major league teams with 42 uninterrupted years at the same site (along with Cincinnati at Tampa and St. Louis at St. Petersburg). In fact, the Reds (1931) are the only big league team to have more seniority in the same city than the Tigers at Lakeland (1934)—not including the war years of 1943-44-45.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE

The Tigers have long regarded Lakeland as their spring home. But, few people realize the Cleveland Indians trained there well before the Tigers. The Tribe spent spring training in Lakeland from 1923-27. The Tigers came on the scene in 1934 and with the exception of the war years, 1943-44-45, have been there since.
